RAK College of Medical Sciences

RAK College of Medical Sciences offers the Doctor of Medicine (MD) program. The MD program is accredited by the Commission for Academic Accreditation (CAA), Ministry of Education, UAE and Listed in World Directory of Medical Schools*.

Program Duration: The MD program is of six years duration (Two years Pre-Medical followed by four years Preclinical & Clinical Sciences). After graduation, one year intern-ship is required as per the guidelines of the Ministry of Health & Prevention (MOHAP) to practice medicine in the UAE

* RAK College of Medical Sciences (RAKCOMS) is listed in the avicenna directory (formerly WHO directory) and the international medical education directory <http://www.wdoms.org>

RAKCOMS is internationally accredited by World Federation of Medical Education, USA.

Highlights

The MD curriculum fosters critical thinking and active learning. This is delivered through a preclinical curriculum that has been designed to integrate the different basic science courses to help students develop their clinical decision making abilities through active learning sessions like Team Based Learning, Case Based Learning and Self Directed Learning.

This is followed by clinical clerkship training in teaching hospitals, where different types of teaching methods are used to achieve the learning outcome.

Students come from diverse backgrounds and challenges- yet when they graduate they will be equipped with several skills in critical thinking, problem solving and in excellent communication.
