The image shows a Turnitin account setup form. It has a dark header with the text 'Welcome to Turnitin!'. Below the header, there is a message: 'You have been added as a student to the account University of Testing.' followed by instructions: 'Before you can get started, we want to confirm your user information and give you the chance to set up your secret question and answer. Please feel free to change any other information as needed.' and 'When you are done, click "next" to continue.' The form contains five input fields: 'your email *' with the value 'janedoe@universityoftesting.com', 'Secret question *' with a dropdown menu showing 'Please select a secret question.', 'Question answer *' which is empty, 'your first name *' with the value 'Jane', and 'your last name *' with the value 'Doe'. At the bottom left is a 'Next' button. To the left of the form, five red arrows point to each of the five input fields. To the right of the 'Next' button, a red arrow points to the button, and the text 'Click Next to continue.' is displayed.

On the next page select the I Agree -- Continue button to accept Turnitin's user agreement and enter the Turnitin service.

The screenshot shows a web interface for the Turnitin User Agreement. At the top, a dark grey header contains the text "User Agreement". Below this, a light grey box contains the text: "Our user agreement has been updated. Please read our user agreement below and agree or disagree to its terms and conditions:". In the center, a white box with a thin border contains the full text of the user agreement. At the bottom of the page, there are two buttons: "I Agree -- Continue" and "I Disagree -- Logout". A large red arrow points from the left towards the "I Agree -- Continue" button.
